

Name: _____

Every English word consists of one or more syllables. Separating words into syllables helps split complex words into simple and easy to remember parts.

Breaking up words into syllables can help with pronunciation and spelling.

Count and write correct syllable. 1st one is done for you.

A word with suffix or prefix usually has the stress on the root word.*

Examples of Prefix words: Un, re, dis, pre, in/im.*

Examples of Suffix words: ed, ing, ly, tion, able, fully, ness, ish, es.*

Friendly → Friend|ly → 2

Table → Table →

Zipper → Zipper →

Circle → Circle →

Slowly → Slowly →

Sadly → Sadly →

Runner → Runner →