The Wolf And The Fox Part 1

A Wolf and a Fox were friends. However, the Fox was very cunning.

One bright, full-moon night, the hungry Fox went looking for food.

He saw a yellow thing in the well and thought it to be cheese.

There were two buckets kept near the well with ropes.

The Fox went into the well using one of the buckets.

But, he soon realized his mistake as the yellow thing was not cheese.
