

Nouns

Nouns are often known as “naming” words. Every Sentence must include at least one noun or pronoun. Most nouns can with be singular or plural and can be divided into two main groups - common and proper.

A common noun is generic name for a person, place or thing.

Proper noun is name of person, place or thing.

Rewrite each sentence by replacing highlighted nouns with correct pronoun.

1. Gretel took the bread under her apron, as Hansel had the pebbles in his pocket.

2. Hansel and Gretel gathered brushwood together, as high as a little hill.

3. Gretel began to cry and said, "How are we to get out of the forest now?"

4. Kay and Gerda looked at the picture-book full of beasts and of birds

5. Sophie never stopped talking about her trip to Disney World.

6. Morris - the monkey woke up super late when sun was up high.

Nouns

Nouns are often known as “naming” words. Every Sentence must include at least one noun or pronoun. Most nouns can with be singular or plural and can be divided into two main groups - common and proper.

A common noun is generic name for a person, place or thing.

Proper noun is name of person, place or thing.

Answers

1. Gretel took the bread under her apron, as Hansel had the pebbles in his pocket.

She took the bread under her apron, as Hansel had the pebbles in his pocket.

2. Hansel and Gretel gathered brushwood together, as high as a little hill.

They gathered brushwood together, as high as a little hill.

3. Gretel began to cry and said, "How are we to get out of the forest now?"

She began to cry and said, "How are we to get out of the forest now?"

4. Kay and Gerda looked at the picture-book full of beasts and of birds.

They looked at the picture-book full of beasts and of birds.

5. Sophie never stopped talking about her trip to Disney World.

She never stopped talking about her trip to Disney World.

6. Morris-the monkey woke up super late when sun was up high.

He woke up super late when sun was up high.