

Nouns

Nouns are often known as “naming” words. Every Sentence must include at least one noun or pronoun. Most nouns can with be singular or plural and can be divided into two main groups - common and proper.

A common noun is generic name for a person, place or thing.

Proper noun is name of person, place or thing.

Rewrite each sentence by replacing highlighted nouns with correct pronoun.

1. Mike was writing an essay.

---

2. Ms. Jones remind us to complete the project by tomorrow.

---

3. Jenny likes to read adventure books.

---

4. This summer, I will be visiting my grandparents.

---

5. Luke and Ben are building tallest tower out of Lego blocks.

---

6. It is exciting to know that Mr. Smith will be mentoring our robotics team.

---

Nouns

Nouns are often known as “naming” words. Every Sentence must include at least one noun or pronoun. Most nouns can with be singular or plural and can be divided into two main groups - common and proper.

A common noun is generic name for a person, place or thing.

Proper noun is name of person, place or thing.

Answers

1. Mike was writing an essay.

He was writing an essay.

---

2. Ms. Jones remind us to complete the project by tomorrow.

She remind us to complete the project by tomorrow.

---

3. Jenny likes to read adventure books.

She likes to read adventure books.

---

4. This summer, I will be visiting my grandparents.

This summer, I will be visiting them.

---

5. Luke and Ben are building tallest tower out of Lego blocks.

They are building tallest tower out of Lego blocks.

---

6. It is exciting to know that Mr. Smith will be mentoring our robotics team.

It is exciting to know that he will be mentoring our robotics team.

---