

Nouns

Nouns are often known as “naming” words. Every Sentence must include at least one noun or pronoun. Most nouns can with be singular or plural and can be divided into two main groups - common and proper.

A common noun is generic name for a person, place or thing.

Proper noun is name of person, place or thing.

Rewrite each sentence by replacing highlighted nouns with correct pronoun.

1. Emily likes to play hide and seek with her sister.

2. Tomorrow, Danny and Sam are going to the park together.

3. Chicken pot pie is Steve's favorite.

4. Mr. Miles is teaching us math this year.

5. Alex has his birthday party next weekend.

6. Scott has his football practice on Saturday morning.

Nouns

Nouns are often known as “naming” words. Every Sentence must include at least one noun or pronoun. Most nouns can with be singular or plural and can be divided into two main groups - common and proper.

A common noun is generic name for a person, place or thing.

Proper noun is name of person, place or thing.

Answers

1. Emily likes to play hide and seek with her sister.

She likes to play hide and seek with her sister.

2. Tomorrow, Danny and Sam are going to the park together.

Tomorrow, they are going to the park together.

3. Chicken pot pie is Steve's favorite.

Chicken pot pie is his favorite.

4. Mr. Miles is teaching us math this year.

He is teaching us math this year.

5. Alex has his birthday party next weekend.

He has his birthday party next weekend.

6. Scott has his football practice on Saturday morning.

He has his football practice on Saturday morning.
